There on The Island Nature's own clean air zone No screening, no quotas Unlimited pleasure.. I can't pay attention any longer than that A strikingly simple play set in an industrail hub of South Africa, this play deals with identity in a world controlled by bureaucracies and institutional racism.. It seems like I can only bring myself to read magazine articles and plays these days.. Fugard makes Apartheid look like Big Brother from 1984 Of course I'm oversimplifying and the story deals more with personal identity than cultural or national identity - and this theme is easily translated to a world where we pick internet monikers and stage names through which we express ourselves.. I can't pay attention any longer than that A strikingly simple play set in an industrail hub of South Africa, this play deals with identity in a world controlled by bureaucracies and institutional racism. LINCOLN Shut up, Jonesy JONES Why don't you make me? LINCOLN You're out of my weight-class.. That resulted in Sizwe Bansi Is Dead and The The Island is a play written Athol Fugard, John Kani, and Winston Ntshona.. What's in a name? Would I be me without my name? I'm going to see the play performed at the Brooklyn Academy of Music tonight, so maybe the live setting will shed some more light of this well-constructed, but maybe simplistic play.. JONES Not anymore They just got the new program in - multi-weight balancing LINCOLN I'll think about it. 6e4e936fe3
